The INN - LANCASTER, PA

ENGAGING the UNREACHED

- Lancaster was designated the “Refugee Capital of the U.S.” by the BBC in a 2017 report, based on the number of refugees resettled in relation to the total city population.
- The INN Lancaster team has connected with 7 different Muslim and Buddhist background unreached peoples.
- 900 children are regarded as “homeless” by the School District of Lancaster.
- People coming to Lancaster who once had no hope are finding new life and hope in Christ.

GO

Why serve with The INN Lancaster? Because you have a heart gripped with God’s love for those in Lancaster who have not had access to the Truth, and you are passionate to share God’s offer of forgiveness in Jesus with them. Because you want to join a small community making a difference in the lives of families of new immigrant neighbors in the unique supportive space of Lancaster.

PRAY

Desired outcomes in the next five years

- Establish 12 friendships with the freedom to visit in homes or invite to special events
- Facilitate two welcome teams for new, unreached families resettling in Lancaster
- Gather groups of men and women to discuss Bible stories of God's power, love and grace

GIVE

Join us in financially supporting The INN Lancaster as we endeavor to establish communities of disciples among the unreached.
